QUALITY POLICY STATEMENT

SPL Powerlines UK Ltd and Power & Infrastructure Resourcing Ltd provides high-quality, reliable turnkey OHLE services and products, on time, that meet the requirements and expectations of our customer, while continually striving to improve.

From design through to installation and commissioning to final testing, we are fully committed to the continuous improvement of our Integrated Management System which has been developed and implemented based on ISO 9001 to consistently provide the highest standards of quality and professionalism in all areas of our business activity. The Integrated Management system is applied diligently to all our activities

We are committed to:

- Taking accountability for the effectiveness of the integrated management system
- Ensuring the quality policy and quality objectives are established for the integrated management system and are compatible with the context and strategic direction of the Company. Quality objectives are set and maintained as part of internal auditing, monitoring and management review processes, to enhance customer satisfaction.
- Satisfying applicable requirements by ensuring that those associated with interested parties, statutory and regulatory requirements are determined and consistently met.
- Determining, monitoring, and reviewing internal and external issues, relevant to the purpose and context of the business and its strategic direction, that affect the ability of the integrated management system to achieve its intended results
- Continual improvement by ensuring the risks and opportunities that can affect conformity of products and services and the ability to enhance customer satisfaction are determined and addressed and the focus on enhancing customer satisfaction and sustainability is maintained.
- Promoting the use of a process approach incorporating evidence and risk-based thinking
- Communicating the importance of effective quality management and of following our working practices
- Embedding a Quality culture that empowers our people to deliver Right First Time and promotes our company values.

This policy will be communicated to all employees and organisations working for or on our behalf. It is expected that they read, understand and implement this policy within their specific areas of responsibility.

This policy will be reviewed annually by senior management and where deemed necessary will be amended and re-issued.

This policy is available to relevant interested parties, as appropriate.
